

Beauty and the Beast Tidbit (100 words)

by Angie

Natures

I cannot escape myself. I have two extreme natures, that of protector and that of teacher/friend. They are related. I could not be a protector of rock or water, only of people I love. Yet, in protector mode, I become a killer. Afterwards, the energy is banked, waiting always.

My hands remind me of what I am.

Catherine knows, yet loves me. Her desire roils through our bond to inflame mine. I have a third nature, that of lover. It demands the best of the others.

I no longer wish to escape myself, only join with her, love her, forever.