Beauty and the Beast 2025, 38th Anniversary
OnZine Guidelines

Calling All Dreamers...

...to help us celebrate another anniversary of the premiere of Beauty and the Beast, and the characters we have all come to know and love.

This year's Free Digital Online Zine will debut on Treasure Chambers on September 25th, 2025.

We welcome all contributions such as new and original stories, poetry, art, digital art, music, filks, and essays. Any plot, genre or season is encouraged and will be considered.

So, do whatever it takes to coax and pamper your muses from their slumber, let them have their way their way with you, and then send your creations to us.

Our goal is to celebrate the creativity and imagination in this fandom and those who continue to keep the Dream alive.

The 2025 OnZine will be available for free in a downloadable digital format. If you prefer a hard copy zine, you are welcome to have it printed at a printer of your choosing. If we receive MP3's of original music and songs or poetry, they can be embedded in the digital format of the zine.

2025 OnZine guidelines are as follows:

- The deadline for all contributions is August 25, 2025.
- Contributions including all three seasons and alternate genres are welcome.
- Contributions rated G through tastefully written R will be considered. Adult Theme and Season 3 will be clearly posted in the Table of Contents. They will also be identified at the beginning of the piece.
- To be fair to all authors, we will accept no more than six written submissions from any one author. We have not set a limit for art or music.

- Please submit only original creations that have not been previously posted online or published in any other format elsewhere.
- Any written materials must be the submitter's own original work. Any other sources the author uses, such as poetry, literature, music, etc., must be clearly identified and credited by the use of proper footnotes. *Please use footnotes and not end notes.
- All stories must be complete. We will not accept unfinished or “to be continued” works.
- Submissions must be in a .doc, format. Please don't send .pdf files.
- If your creations include illustrations, please send those as separate jpg. files with your submission.
- If you prefer to use a nom de plume, please clearly inform the editors at the time of submission.
- The maximum page limit for each submission is 100 pages, Times New Roman, single spaced, font size 14. If your submission exceeds 100 pages, don't despair, just contact the OnZine editor and I will work with you to see what can be done to make it fit. There is no minimum page limit.
- You are encouraged to have your creations edited before you submit them to the OnZine team, otherwise your submissions will be edited for grammar and punctuation without notifying the author. However, any editing of content will only be done with permission, and in cooperation with the author.
- Please wait for at least three months after the 2025 anniversary celebration to post any of your submissions online in a different forum.
- All submissions and questions should be sent to:
