

OUR BOND

by Anne McClelland

(from Dreams in Amethyst)

*Did you hear me cry out to you
In the night? Like the mighty lion
Would roar for her mate
Did you hear my plaintive sighs
Just as the ocean's soft waves
Rush to caress the silver sand*

***

*Did you taste the salt in my tears
As I realize you were only
A dream
A mirage
A reflection
Out of my reach
Taste my love for you
Let me quench your thirst*

***

*Do you speak to me, my love
And I do not listen
Do you understand
Your fears
Your fear of the light dawning
In your life*

*Your fear of hurting me
Oh my love, I want to Open those cold steel shutters
That are your eyes and ears
I plead that you open them
To my love, and let me
Gently caress your pain
Let me soothe your loving heart
And make you whole again*
