

If I Had One Wish

By JessicaRae

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish a galaxy of stars
Would flicker down from their charcoal world
And brighten where you are.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish a thousand years,
Of only joy and happiness,
And no more parting tears.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish my dearest love,
That you would no longer have to seek the Silent solace of Above.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish to long replace
All the memories of painful loneliness, with visions of my face.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish a thousand suns
To brighten up each step you take,
And keep you safe and warm.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish no evil will Could ever come between us again,
And your world would be peaceful still.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish a thousand rains,
Or glittering waves to carry away
Your sorrows, fears, and pains.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish with all my might,
That today would be the last day that you alone would pass the night.

If I had one wish to make, I'd wish for a thousand dreams
To give to you, my only love, my soul,
For as long as we both are here.

With Love, To Vincent
