

Say It Quick!

by Judith

“Please, Vincent. Say it quick, and maybe it won’t hurt too much...”

“I doubt that, but here goes. Welcome, my love, to 2018!”

“I’m sorry, but that number still makes me shiver. I cannot believe it.”

“Catherine, closing your eyes won’t make it sound any better, or more palatable.”

“I know, but one can hope. When all else fails, there’s always hope.”

“There is, indeed.”

“Did you always believe we could come so far, and still be standing?”

“We have endured, much. We will endure whatever is ahead, simply because we are still together, despite everything.”

“Whatever happens, whatever comes...”
