

30th Anniversary Special Interview

Becca Board Fan

1) When did you become a B&B fan?

When the show first aired. I made myself a feast of peanut butter and jelly sandwich and a tall cool glass of milk, got rid of my (then) husband for the evening, and followed Catherine into the tunnels.

2) What attracted you to the series?

I was head over heels with the idea of forbidden love and dare I say, a BEAST with a WOMAN! SHOCKING for back then!

3) What changes have occurred in B&B fandom over the years?

I cannot speak to that question as I have been an on again off again fandom member since an incident that happened on one of the online Yahoo groups.

4) What do you enjoy most about the series?

I don't watch it now (except for vids on Youtube) and only lurk on a Yahoo group to keep my head in the game, so to speak.

5) What do you wish B&B fans would do?

Do the hokey pokey? I just don't have an answer. Fandom is ever evolving from what I can tell.

6) How much time do you devote to B&B in an average month (including social media time)?

Not much, I look thru Daily Digest and watch a few Youtube vids.

7) How many B&B fans have you met?

One in person.\

8) What is your favourite memory as a fan?

Publishing stuff at WFOL, working with Sandy Tew once to illustrate something I wrote. I miss that so much. I would like to add that it was an absolute honor to work for Sobi, I would do that again in a minute, and I was very proud of the work I did with the Treasure Chamber and Angie Burns, one of the most devoted people I will ever know. Angie dreamed it up, and Jo Ann Baca and I jumped right on it, rolled up our sleeves, and looked at each other (figuratively speaking) and said, "What have we gotten ourselves into?"

9) How has B&B changed your life?

Meeting the MOST amazing person ever (in person) and the most amazing people(for the most part) online. Smart, talented, loyal, diverse, funny.....how could you not get drawn into that? Unfortunately, it only took one bad apple to make me shy away. I put my finger too close to the flame and got burnt.

10) If you could have one B&B wish granted, what would it be?

To get to go to JUST one con.
