

30th Anniversary Special Interview

Linn Bankson Artist

1) When did you become aware of B&B and its fandom?

I first became aware of B&B when it originally aired. I was not aware of fandom until after I had reconnected with the show in 2009.

2) What attracted you to B&B as a subject for your art?

My love of Vincent and Catherine. I wanted to help keep their dream alive. The tunnels intrigued me, also. I loved the beauty of all of the characters, and the story in general.

3) What medium do you prefer to work in?

Pencil.

4) What was the largest B&B artwork you made?

9x12 inch drawings for the Hearthside Stories.

5) What is your favourite piece?

Vincent holding Catherine.

6) What subject matter do you like best?

Vincent ! [♥]

7) Did your B&B art change your career?

No-- it didn't affect my career at all.

8) What is your fondest memory related to your B&B art?

Having Ron Perlman sign one of my drawings was thrilling! Meeting Linda and Ron are my fondest memories.

9) If you could have one wish as an artist, what would it be?

To be able to draw what I envision in my minds eye. Sometimes it is very hard to translate that onto paper.

10) What are you working on now?

Nothing at the moment.
